

Closeire Saint Roc Le Pin

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France

REGION: Bordeaux

APPELLATION: Bordeaux

THE STORY

The «Roc de la Closerie» is located between the Camp de la Hire and the village of Monbadon, an extension of the Coteau des Merveilles. The site was the place of encounter between the English, who occupied Aquitaine, and the French, who wanted to reconquer their lands which had passed under English rule following the marriage of Eleanor of Aquitaine (1122-1204) to Henry Plantagenet (marriage in 1152), the future Henry II, king of England.

