THE STORY

Our family is from Tuscany in San Gimignano and has always lived in this cradle of art and nature. Our grandparents have passed down to us the passion and love for the fruits of the earth. Thanks to our grandfather Luano, great businessman, and the hard work of our mother and our father, we have maintained and developed our companies with vineyards and olive groves in the areas of San Gimignano and Montalcino realizing our dream: to live and work in this beautiful reality and be able to offer our products and elegant and diversified tourist accommodations, to let you enjoy with us our concept of “the good life”. - Arianna, Niccolò e Luca Fioravanti
