

Barone Cornacchia Villa Torri Montepulciano d'Abru

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy
REGION: Abruzzo
APPELLATION: Abruzzo

THE STORY

Owning the land since 1488 the Cornacchia family story is made up of ancient roots and passion for wine. The 5th generation, brother and sister, Filippo and Caterina are guided by a Latin proverb their father taught them, "Molto con poco" ("Much with little"), loving the land always will bring out the best.

BIOGRAPHY: Passed down through four generations, today the winery is in the hands of brother and sister Filippo and Caterina Cornacchia. Filippo Cornacchia is meticulous and employs the skills learnt from his father and grandfather before him in all of the vineyards. Caterina Cornacchia is a dynamic and elegant woman with a wealth of talents. With a degree in business economics and an abiding passion for her work, she is the international face of the business.
