

Teliani Valley Tsolikouri

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Georgia

REGION: Kakheti

APPELLATION: Kakheti

CEPAGE: 100% Other

WINEMAKING: Fermented in stainless steel with grapes from Orbeli and Lechkhumi vineyards.

THE STORY

Teliani Valley Winery is currently one of the top producers of quality Georgian wine. Established in 1997 on the site of a 19th century winery in Teliani village, its first vintage was released in 2000. Teliani Valley has the longest tenure on the American market of any Georgian company. Their wines offer a great quality to price ratio and has received the highest Wine Spectator ratings of Georgian wines to date. A large producer by Georgian standards producing over 2 million bottles a year. Their modern wine making facilities are located in east Georgia in the Kakheti Appellation. Very approachable wines for the novice Georgian wine drinker yet the wines maintain unique a Georgian character. All wines imported utilize indigenous Georgian varietals.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Light and crisp

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Stone fruit, almond, grapefruit, minerality

THE SELLING POINTS

A dry white from a native Georgian grape:

Tsolikouri!

PAIRINGS: White Fish, Chicken, Salads

