

Graham Beck Brut

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: South Africa
REGION: Western Cape
APPELLATION: Robertson
CEPAGE: 51% Chardonnay, 49% Pinot Noir
WINEMAKING: Whole bunch pressing of Pinot and Chard. separate fermentation blended with perpetual reserve. 18mths in bottle
ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 11.9%
AGING: 18 months in bottle on lees before disgorging.
ANNUAL PRODUCTION: 27000 cases yearly

THE STORY

In their pursuit of the perfect bubble, Graham Beck raises the bar in terms of quality and distinction, and has established themselves as one of the world's leading sparkling wine brands, devoted to quality and consistency.

PHILOSOPHY: Graham Beck is committed to caring for the community and environmental conservation. Graham Beck's passion is putting their people and the planet first.

BIOGRAPHY: Pieter "Bubbles" Ferreira (Cellar Master) eats, drinks and breathes bubbles! His extraordinary dedication to crafting wines of authenticity, consistency, and supreme elegance. Pierre de Klerk (Winemaker) lives by the mantra: "Bubbly is a calling, not merely a vocation." His infectious enthusiasm has contributed a fresh and eager dimension to the mix at Graham Beck.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Bright fruit, tiny bubbles, rich & creamy
AROMAS / FLAVORS: Light yeasty aromas, limey fresh fruit on the nose, and rich creamy complexity
MOUTHFEEL: fine mousse, elegant minerality

THE SELLING POINTS

President's Choice, award winning, affordability
AWARDS: 91pts Tim Atkin MW, Gold - Houston Rodeo 2025
SUSTAINABILITY: Certified Sustainable
PAIRINGS: Shell Fish with a Citrus remoulade and oysters

