

Bosco del Merlo Prosecco Rose Millesimato DOC

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy

REGION: Veneto

APPELLATION: Prosecco

CEPAGE: 85% Glera, 15% Pinot Noir

WINEMAKING: Charmat method. Grapes vinified separately to preserve freshness & flavor.

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 11.5%

THE STORY

Bosco del Merlo was founded in 1977 in Annone Veneto, when Valentino Paladin realized his dream of creating wines from sustainable practices that could best express the potential and identity of the territory, sealing them in time.

PHILOSOPHY: Bosco del Merlo comes with a personal commitment - to find the best ways of preserving the intrinsic quality of the grapes they grow and to work towards preservation of the land and its ecosystem.

BIOGRAPHY: The winemaking team is composed of Antonio Lucarelli (enologist of Bosco del Merlo and Paladin), Carlo Paladin (founder of Casa Paladin) and Professor Leonardo Valenti.

The agricultural and vineyard management is followed by Valentino Paladin, third generation of the family.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Fresh & Floral

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Strawberry, Raspberry, Floral
Notes on the Nose

MOUTHFEEL: Fine & Persistent Perlage

THE SELLING POINTS

A Philanthropic Prosecco Rose with Portion of Sales Donated

SUSTAINABILITY: Certified Sustainable, Vegan

PAIRINGS: Fish Dishes, Salmon, Tuna Sashimi,
Grilled Vegetables

