THE STORY

The Mas (local word for "farm") bears the name of its founder: François de Valériole, a doctor in Arles who first brought this place to life in 1426. It is located within an outstanding territory, the Camargue Regional and Natural Park in Provence. Above all, this place is about family/ The Michel family settled here in the 1950s and never left. The love and attachment to this place is stronger than ever with the third generation slowly taking the lead.
