

Victoria Torres Pecis El Lalo's Chupadero

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Spain

REGION: Canary Islands

APPELLATION: La Palma

THE STORY

Victoria Torres Pecis is now the sole owner and caretaker of her family's centenarian winery in La Palma, Canary Islands. La Palma is in the northern part of the archipelago, further west into the Atlantic from the African continent. Like the other islands that form the archipelago, the soils are volcanic, the terrain rugged and uneven, and climactic conditions are extreme. Temperatures soar to volcanic heights, and the vineyards are constantly whipped by Atlantic winds. --Bowler
