

Ch Cantegril Barsac

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France

REGION: Bordeaux

APPELLATION: Barsac

THE STORY

Chateau Cantegril is a 22 hectares estate that belongs to the Dubourdieu family since 1924.

The Dubourdieu Family is famous in Bordeaux for owning Chateau Doisy-Daene a Classified Growth Sauternes.

Chateau Cantegril is produced in the same spirit.

PHILOSOPHY: Like those of Doisy Daëne, the sweet wines of Cantegril express the sap and vivacity of the limestone terroir of Barsac.

Chateau Cantegril is the tiny house production from the family.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Elegant & Fruit Driven

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Pale golden. Apricots, pineapples

MOUTHFEEL: A juicy, compact wine, with a all of almond, ginger

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Foie Gras, Blue Cheese, Desert

