

Stroppiana

Emilia Barbera d'Alba

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Italy
REGION: Piedmont
APPELLATION: Alba

THE STORY

Stroppiana is a family-owned winery rooted in the heart of the Langhe region in Piedmont, Italy. Since its inception, the Stroppiana family has focused on cultivating high-quality Nebbiolo, Barbera, and Dolcetto grapes from their vineyards in the prestigious Barolo and La Morra areas. With a deep respect for tradition and sustainability, they employ organic farming practices to nurture the land while combining modern and classic techniques in the winery. Known for crafting elegant, expressive wines, Stroppiana's portfolio reflects the region's unique terroir, emphasizing precision and care in every

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Bright Barbera with fresh fruit and balanced acidity

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Sour cherries, ripe berries, and a touch of spice with floral undertones

MOUTHFEEL: Smooth and juicy with lingering freshness and soft tannins

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Pairs well with pasta, veal, pork, poultry, and game dishes like venison

