

Mas Jullien Coteaux du Languedoc Rose

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France
REGION: Languedoc-Roussillon
APPELLATION: Languedoc-Roussillon

THE STORY

Mas Jullien is a young estate with a long history deeply rooted in the hillsides of Languedoc. They control 15 ha of vines scattered around the village of Jonquières, north of Montpellier and 40 km inland from the Mediterranean. The vines grow on the rocky terraces of the Larzac plateau at the foot of Mont Baudille, planted at up to 900 m, at some of the highest altitudes in the region.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Tropical and rich

