THE STORY

Biodynamic to Recover the Origins and the Terroir: B.R.O.T. emerged from the collaboration of like-minded individuals, with the aim of captivating and inspiring through respect for our land. Our purpose is to give voice to the biodynamic winegrowers in our region, who work the land with passion and dedication, but whose valuable effort is not properly valued. We strive to change this situation and give them the recognition they deserve. They are the true heroes of this project, and we reflect it in every bottle.

PHILOSOPHY: Biodynamic plays a fundamental role in promoting balance in the soil, allowing us to discover the inherent harmony within each vineyard. We focus on working with unique vines capable of expressing the terroir.
