

Dom de la Mordoree Chateauneuf du Pape La Reine de

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: France

REGION: Rhone

APPELLATION: Chateauneuf-du-Pape

CEPAGE: 75% Grenache, 10% Mourvedre, 10% Syrah, 3%
Counoise, 2% Other

AGING: Partial used oak

THE STORY

Created in 1986, by Francis Delorme and his son Christophe, the Domaine de la Mordorée extends over several appellations in the Rhône Valley: Tavel (place where the cellar is located), Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Lirac, Côtes-du-Rhône, Vin de France and Condrieu. This wine estate brings together a 60 hectare vineyard in the Southern Rhône Valley, and is divided into 40 plots spread over 8 communes.

THE ADJECTIVES

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Blackberries, black raspberries, ground pepper, violets, and new saddle leather

MOUTHFEEL: Medium to full-bodied

THE SELLING POINTS

AWARDS: 98pts Decanter, 96pts Jeb Dunnuck

SUSTAINABILITY: Certified Biodynamic, Biodynamic
In Practice

