

Turning Point Cabernet Sauvignon Alexander Valley

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: USA - CA
REGION: Sonoma
APPELLATION: Alexander Valley
CEPAGE: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon
ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 14.5%
AGING: 15% French new oak.

THE STORY

Turning Point, a curated selection of wine from the Sonoma Valley, is a collaboration between winemaker Nick Goldschmidt and Vineyard Brands. The name refers to the constant change, season to season, that happens and are necessary to crafting a wine, from the vines to the finished product. There are three wines available: a Chardonnay from the Russian River Valley, a Red Blend from the Alexander Valley and a Cabernet Sauvignon also from the Alexander Valley.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: Very approachable, great balance.
AROMAS / FLAVORS: Dank Cherry, blueberry, blackberries, bittersweet chocolate.
MOUTHFEEL: Concentrated with velvety tannins.

THE SELLING POINTS

Classic Californian Cabernet.
SUSTAINABILITY: Vegan

