

Turning Point Red Blend Alexander Valley

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: USA - CA

REGION: Sonoma

APPELLATION: Alexander Valley

CEPAGE: 71% Merlot, 14% Cabernet Sauvignon, 7% Petit Verdot, 4% Malbec, 4% Cabernet Franc

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 14.5%

AGING: 15% French new oak.

THE STORY

Turning Point, a curated selection of wine from the Sonoma Valley, is a collaboration between winemaker Nick Goldschmidt and Vineyard Brands. The name refers to the constant change, season to season, that happens and are necessary to crafting a wine, from the vines to the finished product. There are three wines available: a Chardonnay from the Russian River Valley, a Red Blend from the Alexander Valley and a Cabernet Sauvignon also from the Alexander Valley.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: A pleasing, vibrant wine.

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Red fruit, black tea, spices, cherry and blueberries.

MOUTHFEEL: Round, soft tannins paired with nice acidity.

THE SELLING POINTS

A sophisticated yet approachable Cali red blend.

SUSTAINABILITY: Vegan

