

Turning Point Cabernet Sauvignon Reserve Alexander

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: USA - CA

REGION: Sonoma

APPELLATION: Alexander Valley

CEPAGE: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 14.5%

AGING: 15% French new oak.

THE STORY

Turning Point, a curated selection of wine from the Sonoma Valley, is a collaboration between winemaker Nick Goldschmidt and Vineyard Brands. The name refers to the constant change, season to season, that happens and are necessary to crafting a wine, from the vines to the finished product. There are three wines available: a Chardonnay from the Russian River Valley, a Red Blend from the Alexander Valley and a Cabernet Sauvignon also from the Alexander Valley.

THE ADJECTIVES

OVERALL: An amazingly dark and intense wine.

AROMAS / FLAVORS: Blackberries, plum, vanilla and blueberries.

MOUTHFEEL: Very lush and velvety with a lingering finish.

THE SELLING POINTS

A top, small batch Cabernet from California.

SUSTAINABILITY: Vegan

