THE STORY

At the forefront of the Beaujolais movement is Anita Kuhnel, a former professional cyclist who launched her eponymous domaine with the 2015 vintage. The winery is located in Chénas, a stone's throw from the Fleurie border and the renowned Poncié vineyard, and today encompasses 18 HA spread among the crus of Chénas, Fleurie, Morgon, and Moulin-a-Vent. Anita's goal from the outset was to produce wines of minimal intervention that express site character with maximal clarity.
