THE STORY

Château Saint Andre Corbin is located in Bordeaux's smallest appellation just north of the village of Saint Emilion. Both the estate and vineyards date to the Gallo-Roman epoch. Letters from the Roman Consul and poet Ausonius to Rome indicate that wine from this estate was served at Julius Cesar's table in the 4th century.

BIOGRAPHY: St. Andre Corbin is owned by the dynamic Saby family, who has been making wine on the right bank for 9 generations. Today, brothers Jean-Philippe and Jean- Christophe Saby, both of whom are experienced oenologists and agriculturâl engineers, own and manage the estate as well as numerous other family-owned châteaux in the St. Emilion region of Bordeaux.
