

Bodegas Osborne Vors Venerable PX 1902

THE FACTS

COUNTRY: Spain

REGION: Andalucia

APPELLATION: Jerez

CEPAGE: 100% Pedro Ximenez

WINEMAKING: It is made entirely out of ancient stocks of Pedro Ximenez wine. The grapes were all dried on mats to raisined state before tiny amounts of ultra sweet juice were pressed from them.

After a few generations of ageing a miniscule amount of this essence is produced at 45% residual sugar. RS = 450 g/L

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 17.0%

THE STORY

Osborne is one of the most renown names in the history of Sherry, Brandy. They created the iconic silhouette of the huge black bull that can be seen from the rolling hilltops across Spain to signify their family-owned brands as a way to honor Spanish culture and tradition. The venerable history was initiated by Englishman Thomas Osborne, who started shipping his Sherries in 1804.

THE SELLING POINTS

PAIRINGS: Non-fruity ice creams, particularly vanilla, caramel, brown bread ice cream and chocolate

