THE STORY

Poggiotondo is a highly respected estate located in the western hills of Tuscany's Chianti region, situated between Florence and Pisa near the historic village of Vinci. Originally founded in 1968, the estate is owned and directed by the world-renowned flying winemaker and consultant Alberto Antonini alongside his wife, Alessandra. Under Antonini's leadership, Poggiotondo has become a benchmark for pure, authentic, and modernly transparent Tuscan winemaking that actively rejects the "over-extracted, over-oaked" styles of the past.
